We Have So Much Love To Share...

Dear Birth Family,

Throughout this profile we share bits of our life with you....

Hello and thank you for looking at our profile! We are Pam and Nick from New York! Although we can't know what you're going through, we do know that there are many important decisions you must make. We hope that you are granted the strength and peace to help you make the right ones for you and your child. We respect that it takes an amazing amount of courage. We have always known that we wanted a family and we believe that parenting a child will be such a fulfillment and one of the greatest joys of life.

We have been through many years of infertility and sadness, but it has strengthened us, brought us closer. We have chosen to adopt because we want to share our love with a child, the method for which we start our family is not important, we want to raise our children with all the love that we both grew up with. We believe that love, faith, creativity and honesty are core values to grow up with, we are hoping and praying to be the blessed couple who gets the chance to love, nurture and make a difference in a child's life.

About Us

We have been together for 20 very happy years and this year we are celebrating our 15th wedding anniversary. We met through mutual friends and knew right away that we were destined to live our lives together. As with every couple, we have had our ups and downs, our share of joys and our share of heartaches, but we always knew that we would face everything as a team. We are each others best friend.

Both coming from large families, we look forward to starting our own. We knew this on our wedding day when all of our family and friends joined us on that beautiful sunny day in May. Although the train on Pam's gown was almost as long as the church aisle, Pam didn't even trip once! Our wedding album consisted of photos taken in a beautiful park alongside a lake to show our love for the outdoors. We hope to continue that tradition with our new family for days to come.

More About Us

Well established and secure, we both have great jobs that we enjoy. Nick's business is steady and reliable and brings him a great amount of pleasure. Pam's job as a bookkeeper is very flexible and allows her to spend time working from a home we both love. Our house is in a typical, safe suburban neighborhood with many schools and parks. The local school system is highly rated and there are wonderful educational opportunities available. Our house is a home and we have a great backyard in which children love to play. Most of our free time is spent with family and friends, sharing meals and laughs. Together we love to take walks and ride our bicycles around the neighborhood. In the summer, our barbecues are a great reason to make more fun memories.

Our cat April has brought us a lot of joy, she hangs out with us when watching television. She is a very personable and gentle cat who gets along great with children. Our nieces and nephews are always playing with her and she loves the attention. We also have a turtle and fish as part of our extended family, although they spend their time outside in the pond.

Always the boy scout!

We really enjoy traveling, visiting different places together and with family. We spent our honeymoon in Florida and took a three day cruise to the Bahamas. Although Pam was seasick, we had a great time and met new friends! We spent time in Disney and Universal Studios and had such fun! We love antiques and museums, we like to fill our lives with everything we enjoy and have fun, we always like to share that joy of life.

Always Having Fun!!

A Little About Pam From Nick

When I was young I would laugh at people when they said, "it was love at first sight" until I met Pam. My whole world changed that fateful day, from her beautiful green eyes, to her long brown hair all I saw was my future. She is honest, loyal and very sincere. Pam will always take other people's feelings and make them her top priority. She is there for everyone in her life, giving always and hardly ever says no to someone in need. She is always ready with a joke to make you laugh, her smile alone can bring you up. She always has a shoulder ready, to cry or lean on. Everyone who knows her will say that Pam has the best ear to listen to your problems. Though she doesn't just tell you what you want to hear, she will tell you the truth and help you any way she knows how. My wife loves our families and is constantly bringing them together. Spending time with our nieces, nephews and friends children is something that makes Pam very happy. She is patient, kind, creative and a great cook with the biggest heart. There is no doubt in my mind that Pam will make an excellent mom. I love her more and more every day and I can't wait to grow our family together.

A Little About Nick From Pam

Where do I begin to describe my incredible life with Nicky? There seems to be no beginning, it's like he has always been there with me, for me. Nicky is very fun loving, passionate about life and enjoys sharing that passion with family and friends. He is always ready to give to someone else. Nicky is always the first to lend a hand, he'll put aside what he is doing to help out. He's always working around the house, everyday turning it more into our home. Our deck is one of Nicky's favorite places to hang out, listening to music while he throws some food on the grill for family and friends. His love for cooking isn't limited to the outside though, Nicky loves having our families over for big group dinners where he always adds another pair of helping hands in the kitchen. He's always up for some fun and surprises, one year Nicky bought me a gift and hid it inside a can of sealed beans, just like you would buy in the store! He is very romantic, whether taking me for a long walk on the beach or hiding jewelry in a can. Nicky is so much more than just my husband, he's my best friend, my other half.

Our Family

We both come from loving and caring families. Nick is the second oldest of four children and Pam is the youngest of two. We both grew up with strong family and education values, Sundays at church and then family dinners. Our families have always been close, sharing dinners, birthdays and holidays.

Our families live close by and we have many family traditions, constantly making new ones as our families grow. Like many families we color Easter eggs together, decorate the tree at Christmas and watch the fireworks on the Fourth of July. We love family vacations and weekends away, where you will always find us playing with the kids and pets!

Our whole family is really looking forward to having a new member to love and nurture. They are all very supportive of our desire to adopt and would welcome any child with loving hearts and open arms.

Our Promise

Thank you for reading our profile, sharing in our lives and considering us as parents. We want you to know that any child that comes into our lives through adoption will always know that they were placed with love, thoughtfulness and affection. We long to share our lives, everything and everyone in it with a child and grow a family.

Should you honor us by choosing us to raise your child, be assured that we will do so with love, care and support. We would gladly keep you updated with photos, letters, emails, whatever you are comfortable with. Your child will always know their adoption story and the wonderful way we became a family.

We would love the opportunity to share more about us with you and especially hear about you, so please contact us.
