Welcome to our
Adoption Profile

Hello,

Thank you for taking time to look through our profile and see if we might be the couple you choose to become parents to your baby. We can only imagine that this is a challenging time in your life, as you consider adoption as an option for you and your child. Without even knowing you, it is clear that you are unselfish. To us, choosing to give your child a bright future by making an adoption plan is a selfless act of love.

We are incredibly excited about becoming first time parents, but at the same time, we have compassion for you as you make up your mind about what is best for you and your baby. We will make sure that your baby understands adoption in a positive way. We want this child to know that he or she is loved by all of us. God Bless you for giving this child life.

Updates

If it is something that you hope for, we would be happy to share occasional updates and photos with you, so you can see and hear how the baby is doing.

How we met

Steven and I first met at a mutual friend's party. We talked and laughed a lot that night and made plans for our first date. We have been together ever since that day 11 years ago. We were married on Valentine's Day and have been happily married for 6 years now.

Embracing Adoption

Since I was a little girl I dreamed of being a mother. It is a dream that still remains in my heart. After Steve and I were married, we tried for years to have a baby with no success. We saw an infertility doctor for help and learned that pregnancy would not be possible for us. We were informed that my ovaries were not functioning properly. I was upset by this news. Steve was so loving and comforting. He assured me, we would be parents. He suggested adopting like his sister and husband had done adopting their two daughters. We believe that this is the way God has intended our family to be formed. We have completed all of the steps required and have been approved to adopt. We are more than ready to welcome our first child.

Because adoption has already touched our family, everyone is even more excited to welcome our "miracle baby!"

We can't wait to create a beautiful room for our future son or daughter!

Growing up

Steve and I both feel so blessed to have grown up in happy homes. We both have many wonderful childhood memories.

Steve comes from a large family; he has three sisters and one brother, and I have a brother. We both share close relationships with our parents, our siblings and their families. We want to give our child a joyful childhood like we had.

We would like our children to feel the love, safety and encouragement that we felt growing up.

Where we live

Our home is located in a beautiful suburban town in New York. Our neighborhood is filled with many families with young children. We feel fortunate that our entire family lives within a few blocks of one another. All of our nieces and nephews go to the same school. Our family has a close bond and we enjoy getting together regularly.

Careers

Steven runs his family construction business which has been in business for over 40 years. It comes with a lot of flexibility leaving Steven being able to make his own hours. I am a phlebotomist at a hospital close to our home. I also have great flexibility in my work schedule. When we are blessed with a baby, I plan to drop my schedule down to only one day a week. We have planned financially so I can be a stay at home mom and I can't wait!!!

Dreams and Parenthood

We dream of family vacations at Walt Disney World, building sandcastles on the beach, celebrating holidays, birthdays and walks in the park. We are so excited about welcoming this baby into our lives. We have so much to share with this baby. We will be fully devoted to your baby day in and day out. Your baby will have two dedicated parents, a safe encouraging home to grow up in and a large loving extended family. We are prepared emotionally and financially to become parents.

Thank you!

We sincerely appreciate your time and consideration. You are in our prayers as you make your decisions.
